

Angela Todorova has finished her secondary education at the National School of Music “Lubomir Pipkov” in Sofia, Bulgaria, in the piano class of Prof. Milena Mollova. From March 2021 she is a student in MDW Vienna in the class of Prof. Lilya Zilberstein.

Angela was born on 8th March 1999 and began her musical education at the age of 5. She won her first piano competition with big success in 2010 at the International Competition Young Virtuosos Sofia, Bulgaria - first prize and Special prize given by Scene Academia. She has won more than 20 prizes (10 first prizes) and many special prizes at national and international piano and chamber music competitions, such as International Competition „Euterpe” – Italy - the First Absolute Prize - inscribed in the register of Gold contest; First Prize (in a category without age limit) - “Perusia Harmonica” 2020 - Perugia, Italy; „Ohrid Pearls” in Macedonia; “Virtuosi per musica di pianoforte” in Czech Republic and many other prizes from competitions in Bulgaria, Serbia, Romania and Macedonia.

Angela has had many solo piano and chamber music recitals in Bulgaria, Serbia, Macedonia, Czech Republic, Poland, Italy, Austria, Germany and USA.

During the years she has participated in many competitions for different scholarships by playing live or with some videos.

She has been granted with student scholarships from:

- “Yordan Kamdzhlov” Foundation
- for young pianists „Lidia Kuteva”, established with personal funds of prof. Pavlina Dokovska (Mannes College of Music, USA), member of the Council of the International Foundation „St. Cyril and Methodius”
- prof. Milena Mollova
- prof. Mario Hossen
- Special scholarship from “Communitas” Foundation
- Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Bulgaria

Angela is a member of the “Successful children of Bulgaria” – project of “Dimitar Berbatov” Foundation from 2010 until 2015.

Angela Todorova has attended piano and chamber music master classes of prof. Milena Mollova, prof. Lilya Zilberstein, Boris Berman, Lera Auerbach, Boris Petrushansky, Dr. Ivo Kaltchev, Francesco Mirabella, Dr. Eric Fang, Dr. Ruiqi Fang, Marisa Blanes, Luciano Sarmiento, Hande Dalkilic, Adrian Oetiker, Sylviane Deferne, Maria Prinz, Milena Lazarova, Mario Hossen, Gavriel Lipkind, Leonid Kerbel and Romain Garioud.

Since 2013 Angela is taking part in the international summer academy “Orpheus” in Vienna under the guidance of prof. Milena Mollova where she took part in many concerts and performed the world premiere compositions. She performed in many world known places such as "Haydn house", "Mozart house" and "Porgy and bess jazz club”.

Angela was invited to take part in the world-famous "Varna Summer festival", where in 2019 she gave the world premiere of the work "Manuscripta rubra" by the composer prof. Georgi Arnaudov and in 2022 performs the violin sonata by Debussy together with prof. Mario Hosen.

Based on an invitation of the "Donka Paprikova" Foundation, the young pianist performed in many events, organized in Sofia. Angela Todorova was granted with a special thanksgiving diploma from "Donka Paprikova" Foundation for her support for activities and purposes of the Foundation.

Angela Todorova has worked with the conductors Berislav Shipush (Croatia), Rossen Gergov (Bulgaria - Austria), Dimitar Panov (Bulgaria), Veselin Baychev (Bulgaria), Pieralberto Cattaneo (Italy) and Georgi Patrikov (Bulgaria) and has performed with the Plovdiv Philharmonic, Youth Philharmonic – Sofia, Vraca Philharmonic, The orchestra of jurists, Camerata Orphica and The symphonic orchestra of the National Music Academy "Pantcho Vladigerov".

She was chosen to perform together with her teacher prof. Milena Mollova and the pianist Kaliya Kalcheva at the National School of Music "Lubomir Pipkov" anniversary concert (110 years from founding the school) in famous Bulgaria Hall in Sofia.

She actively participates in the cultural life of the country and often performs as a special guest in open ceremonies of contemporary artists exhibitions, presentations of contemporary writers books and anniversary celebration of famous representatives of Bulgarian culture.